

Trestle Board Stony Creek Lodge #5 F.&A.M.

The Master's Message

Hello Brothers,

The new year is here and we are diligently going to work with our sleeves rolled up and progress is taking place. The accomplishment of an educational scholarship for a Rochester student has taken place. We have a backup system for our degree lectures, however, the real system still needs to be accomplished.

I thank those brothers who have given donations to the Lodge in order to help with the scholarship, etc. Bless you for showing you are a Mason. If all were to give a little, it doesn't become a burden on only a few.

The EA Degree in January was accomplished and at this time four of five applications are coming forward. Each member we gain shall lessen our dues for 2010. The donations shall be used for the accomplishment of our goals. In the meantime, the fund-raising committee is in process of starting with one.

If you have an e-mail address, please submit it to our Secretary Ed McDonald. This will help to defray our cost of postal stamps. We are no longer using bulk mail, which requires a minimum of 200 pieces, for the Trestle Board. Ed's e-mail:

emcdonald@wideopenwest.com

The next mailing will provide a sheet of questions so we may have a better knowledge of our brothers and their professions, etc.

I thank those brothers for coming to Lodge and it would be nice if we had more attending on Degree Nights, so we might have some on the sidelines after the parts needed are filled.

I am posting the committees and the brothers' names; so if you would like to join in on one or two of them, you can give them a call.

There is a Lodge of Instruction to be held on Tuesday, February 10, 2009 at Lake Orion Lodge #46. It shall be in the EA Degree. It will start promptly at 7:00 P.M. All officers are expected to be there. Officers, call me if you are not able to be present. This is the first of all three degrees.

Thank you to Wor. Bro. Vosteen for your e-mail and hope all is well with you and Margaret. Miss you and come visit the Lodge when you can.

Brother Jeffrey Rolph, JD is on the mend and hope you are doing better.

Thought for the month - The first duly constituted and chartered Masonic Lodge in the Americas is now St. Johns Lodge. This took place in 1733 in the City of Boston. It started off with a group of 18 masons. I encourage each of the brothers of Stony Creek #5 to help improve our attendance to more than 18 at our Lodge meetings.

God bless each of you in your endeavors and remember your sweetheart on Valentines Day!

Fraternally yours,
Jay Rader, W.M.
