The Master's Message

Hello Brothers,

Upon receiving this Trestle Board, you will notice that March is here and we are marching along the path of Masonry. There is an eventful month ahead and the brothers are participating and moving the Lodge onward and forward. Three investigations have taken place which shall bring on more degree work.

The month of February needed some changes due to a Lodge of Instruction in the EA Degree. Then the Mason of the Year dinner took place on the district level and Stony Creek #5 was requested to be the host Lodge. Our Wor. Brother Scott Hummon was selected as Mason of the Year for District 54, which includes a total of five lodges.

The donations are still coming in and I thank each brother for their generosity towards helping others and the betterment of our Lodge.

We do have a Lodge of Instruction in the Master Mason Degree on March 10 2009 at 7:00 P.M. All officers are required to be there and I'm requesting as many members as possible to be in attendance. As we are the host Lodge, let us have the best turnout ever! The members who have not attended a meeting this year, please consider attending this night. I request that you be in proper dress, business casual or better, no dungarees, Levis or sweatshirts from here on except for building work projects, degree practice, or officers meetings. The dress for degree nights requires a tuxedo and white gloves, for those members who have them, or a dark suit. A white shirt is required for both the tuxedo and dark suit.

Officers, if you have an unavoidable conflict on one of our meeting nights or functions, please call me in advance so that we can make plans for a brother to fill in for you and give him the chance to prepare.

The committees have met and are in process of having individual meetings to realize their goals and obligations. The fund raising committee is making final plans for the first fund raiser and will be presenting it in the near future.

As we know March 17th is St. Patrick's Day and there will be no meeting that evening so the Irish can celebrate!

The thought for the month: "A man with a new idea is a crank until the idea succeeds." - Mark Twain

Fraternally yours,
Jay Rader, W.M.
