Brothers of Stony Creek Lodge:

As February winds down, I look back at the full month we had. We raised almost $5000 to support our Lodge, entered a new Brother into our group, and honed our skills at a Lodge of Instruction; we said goodbye to a Brother who dropped the working tools, enjoyed each other's company at a game night and honored Brother George Washington. It's hard to believe that we did all that in one month, but we did. More is happening now, than in the whole time I have been a member of Stony Creek and it is wonderful to see so many Brothers, so often. In fact, I met several Brothers that I had never met before, and I hope to see them often in the future.

Speaking of the future, March is roaring in like a lion. As we start to look towards the renewal of spring, it is also a good time to renew your connection with the Lodge. There are many events you can participate in while enjoying the company of your fellow Brothers.

I am hoping we can front a team for the Michigan Mason Charitable Foundation Bowl-a-Thon, which promises to be a fun event. If you are interested, please let me know.

Our Lodge has the distinction of hosting a DDI and BGP Election in March. Officers required to attend and voting open to WM, SW, JW and Past Masters only.

We have been working up some very interesting things for the Master Degree as well. If you haven't seen this officer put on a degree, this is the one to see!

The Shrine Circus is coming to town and I am proposing a "family fun night" on the 24th to support our Brothers and the fine work they do with the Shrine Children's Hospitals.

At the end of March we are having our second Poker Fundraiser of 2013. The last event did so well, we almost met our goal for the entire year. Please come out and support this event to raise funds for the Lodge.

We have several interested candidates that we will be inviting to join us for meals and "meet 'n' greets", so don't be surprised if you see some new faces around the Lodge room in the coming months. March promises to be as busy a month as February was, Brothers, and you are not going to want to miss it. In like a Lion, indeed!

See you in Lodge.
Daniel J. Toole, WM
